

Company information

Nova Games is a young and fast-growing mobile game publisher for a broad audience. Founded in 2014, the international publisher Nova Games develops and promotes mobile games, mainly for iOS and Android in F2P (Free-to-play) segment.

Nova Games was founded by a group of private investors who invest in indie game developers. That's why we understand how mobile game industry works. Our project portfolio increases all the time and we are always open to new opportunities.

In 2015 Nova Games plans to publish some new mobile games of different genres, which are going to become smash hits in the App Store and Google Play.

EXPERTISE Our team has a lot of experience in bringing different projects to market.

PASSION AND ENERGY We bet on young ambitious professionals who follow market trends.

SMART MARKETING We have a generous marketing budget and our marketing team knows how to spend it right.

CLEAR FOCUS We work in the Free-to-play segment on iOS and Android platforms. We track users' behavior and we know what they want.

POSSIBILITY OF INVESTMENT For the best projects we not only provide marketing support, but we can also invest in case it has a clear concept, pulled together team and working prototype.
